MEMORANDUM FOR THE CHAIRMAN,
UNITED STATES INTELLIGENCE BOARD

SUBJECT: Electronics Intelligence

The Department of Defense has recently concluded a study of the electronics intelligence resources and procedures of the United States. As a result of this study the Department of Defense Directive on Electronics Intelligence has been revised. The revision embodies recommendations to define responsibilities for operational control, strengthen the technical control of collection and processing, centralize the supervision of foreign liaison and establish procedures for a consolidated review of ELINT requirements and resources.

Copies of the revised Department of Defense Directive on Electronics Intelligence will be forwarded for the members of the United States Intelligence Board upon publication.
